
YOUNG CHANGE MAKERS

*Princess Angelika's meetings with children around
the world*

YOUNG CHANGE MAKERS

Books for children about the beauty of the different parts of the Globe, sustainable development goals, culture, and history, and respect for other cultures and religions. Each of Princess Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha's books concentrate on her international travels and humanitarian visits, during which she met many children, humanitarians, peace Nobel prize winners, royals, and quiet heroes, who significantly supports their local communities.

Books for children about the beauty of the different parts of the Globe, sustainable development goals, culture, history, the beauty of nature, and respect for other nationalities, cultures and religions.

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

All rights reserved.

The first book is concentrated on Cambodia, where Princess Angelika had spent almost 9 months. In Cambodia Princess, Angelika met with the children, victims of landmines, humanitarians, and quiet heroes, who help local communities. As a strong anti-landmine activist and advocate, due to the demining action and anti-landmine campaign, she stayed in Cambodia for 9 months. She learned about the beautiful history and heritage of Cambodia.

BOOKS ABOUT PRINCESS ANGELIKA'S MEETINGS WITH CHILDREN AROUND THE WORLD

The next books will be dedicated to Egypt and India - countries with beautiful histories, heritage, and cultures.

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

All rights reserved.

Parallel Event “Young Change Makers - Future Moral Leaders with the Global Goals Spirit” during the NGO CSW67 Forum in New York on March 7 at 2.30 PM EST in CCUN United Nations.

ORGANIZED WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK
OF THE FORUM

NGO CSW67
FORUM 67

YOUNG CHANGE MAKERS
- FUTURE MORAL LEADERS
WITH THE GLOBAL GOALS
SPIRIT

NGO CSW67 FORUM PARALLEL EVENT
March 7 at 2.30 PM EST
in CCUN United Nations

www.onemine-onelife.com

ONE MINE
ONE LIFE

ICA
INTERNATIONAL

International Academic Competitions

Books “Young Change Makers” will be officially presented during the NGO CSW67 Forum in New York. The sixty-seventh session of the Commission on the Status of Women will take place from 6 to 17 March 2023.

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

All rights reserved.

HSH Princess Angelika Ewa Jarosławska Sapieha.

International Peace Ambassador, anti-landmine activist, Patron over the global demining action, humanitarian, philanthropist.

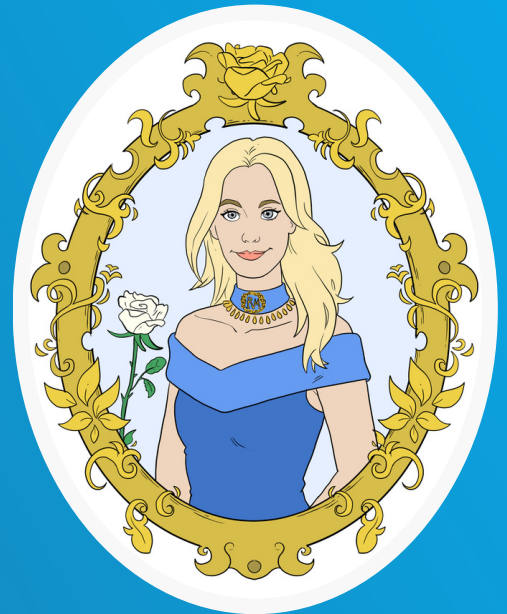

International Peace Ambassador by SPIA HSD Soldiers of Peace International Association Humanitarian Support and Development, United Nations Peacekeepers NGO's with General Consultative Status of the United Nations Economic and Social Council. Initiator and patron of the global "One Mine One Life" campaign and movement towards a mine-free world.

Honorary Ambassador and member of the Polish Peace Corps. Global ant-landmine activist, peace activist, humanitarian. Initiator and coordinator of economic projects that promote culture and history. Patron of the Cambodia Landmine Museum, Cambodian Self Help Demining, Landmine Relief Fund and Roots of Peace.

Peace Ambassador Princess Angelika Ewa Jarosławska Sapieha mobilizes the international community to support the international anti-landmine campaign, demining organizations in Cambodia and raising awareness about the "underground devil" – millions of landmines that are still lying active in the ground around the world. Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha is the head of the Geopolitical Alliance of Women Board. She took the patronage over the exhibition "Children in War", which had its premieres in seventeen countries, as well as in the European Parliament and the headquarters of the United Nations in New York. Initiator of the "Children Painting Peace" international contest.

Together with the leaders from Ukraine, Georgia and Syria, she initiated on May 30, 2019, the "Geopolitics Balance Women's Platform" to support international peace and human rights. In 2019 she received the Saint Stanislaw's Order established by Polish King Stanisław August Poniatowski for her contribution to culture and social activities. She was chosen as a one of the "30 under 30" by Forbes magazine.

On September 30th, 2019 in Chennai, India, Peace Ambassador Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha received Honorary Award due to her continuous support to humanity. In 2016 in Poland, Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha received the Multicultural Leader award. In 2017 She was also chosen as a one of the 21 women in the book published on the 100th anniversary of women gaining the right to vote in Poland. This book was presented at WED Day – World Women's Entrepreneurship Day in New York and Polish Special Award of Intelligent Development. She was chosen to be a one of the hundred Polish women, which were a symbol of the 100th anniversary of women's right to vote in Poland.

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

For her lifetime achievements in humanitarian and social work, in 2020 Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha received a special Super Wiktoria award as an "International Ambassador for the Implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals". In August 2020, the former Blues Helmets meeting in Committee, awarded Princess Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha by the Commemorative Medal of Peace. Commemorative medal of peace has rendered eminent services for the noble cause of Peace and the dignity of man, in order to obtain a better world, by promoting Justice, International Law, and Social Progress.

In 2021 World Humanitarian Drive (WHD) conferred the Global Humanitarian Award to HSH Princess Angelika Ewa Jarosławska Sapieha, International Peace Ambassador for her contributions as an leader in serving global communities in need and putting humanity first.

On October 9, 2021 Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha received a special award Super Wiktoria for their humanitarian work and contribution to the global demining action as an "International Peace Ambassador and Leader in the Global Anti-landmine Campaign".

In 2022 Princess Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha organized a special event 'One Mine One Life Worldwide Movement for Mine-free World' on the NGO CSW66 Forum, assisting the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women. The event took place in New York City, USA on 21st of March 2022. In June 2022 Princess Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha received a special medal 'Star of Cambodia' from United Nations Transitional Authority in Cambodia (UNTAC). for her long- standing humanitarian support for Cambodia and support for demining action in Cambodia.

ORGANIZED WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK
OF THE FORUM

YOUNG CHANGE
MAKERS

THE FIRST EDUCATIONAL BOOK CONCENTRATES ON CAMBODIA, BEAUTY OF THE CULTURE AND HERITAGE OF THE COUNTRY AND MINE RISK EDUCATION.

Landmines are a very vital problem nowadays around the globe which can only be solved with the active involvement of the global community.

Landmine risk education is very vital for children and youngsters from all over the world.

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

All rights reserved.

YOUNG CHANGE MAKERS

Books for children about the beauty of the different parts of the Globe, sustainable development goals, culture, and history, and respect for other cultures and religions. Each of Princess Angelika Jarosławska Sapieha's books concentrates on her international travels and humanitarian visits, during which she met many children, humanitarians, peace Nobel prize Laureates, royals, and quiet heroes, who significantly support their local communities.

Books for children about the beauty of the different parts of the Globe, sustainable development goals, culture, history, the beauty of nature, and respect for other nationalities, cultures and religions.

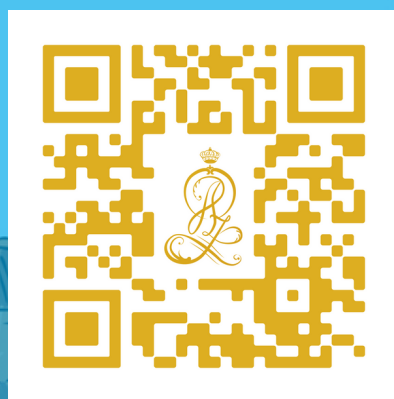

CONTACT

THE FOUNDATION OF PRINCESS
ANGELIKA JAROSLAWSKA SAPIEHA
PAX MUNDI

office@angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com

contact@onemine-onelife.com

www.onemine-onelife.com

ul. Puławska 99A,
02-595 Warszawa

www.angelikajaroslawskasapieha.com